SALES CONDITIONS

Ordering and prices

Publications listed with sales prices (Dutch guilders) in the right hand column are available from the FID Secretariat, 7 Hofweg, The Hague.

Publications listed without sales prices in the right hand column should be ordered direct from the publisher mentioned. They may, if desired, be ordered from the FID Secretariat which, however, has no stock of such publications; this will usually mean a delay in delivery.

All prices are subject to change without prior notice.

No publication will be supplied on approval. Proforma invoices will be valid for 3 months only.

Discount

The FID Secretariat allows the following discounts:

a) on publications issued by the FID Secretariat (publ. number in italics):

25% for orders placed directly by Members, Associates and Affiliates
20% for orders placed by booksellers
33% for orders for at least 50 copies of the same publication (excluding periodicals)

b) on other FID publications sold by the FID Secretariat:

20% for orders placed directly by Members, Associates and Affiliates
15% for orders placed by booksellers

c) no discount on photocopies.

Forwarding charges

Handling and shipping charges are included in the rates for subscriptions to the periodical and serial publications (FID News Bulletin, R & D Projects, P Notes, and Extensions and Corrections to the UDC) but will be added in all other cases.

The Dutch value added tax (BTW) will be added to all invoices for sales within the Netherlands.

Payment

Invoices should be paid within two months of the date of receipt. Subscriptions to periodical and serial publications are payable before 1st April.

Payments should preferably be made to
- FID postal account no. 51 38 26

Other modes of payment are:
- FID account no. 51.95.24.780 with the Algemene Bank Nederland, The Hague
- postal money order or bank cheque to the FID Secretariat
- Unesco coupons.

Claims

Claims for non-receipt will not be accepted after three months (six months outside Europe) following dispatch of any publications ordered.
